DJ Cloud NI9E Hip Hop DJ and producer based in Tokyo, Japan. He has been creating tracks since the mid-nineties and his production is heavily influenced by jazz, rock, and soul. Cloud received his greatest accolade last year, when he was drafted into the Ficus Collective to partake in the "Foliage" compilation by the late Nujabes' Hydeout Productions. "Foliage" also featured Jay-Z's producer 9th Wonder. His debut was marked by the 2009 "Day Dreaming EP" released from his own Musou Productions imprint, and was critically acclaimed in mainland Japan and throughout Europe. Beatsmith also holds down a residency at Tokyo's Shimokitazawa Ghetto Hip Hop event, which serves as a who's who party for the metropolis' dense rap scene.
